

SOUTH ASIAN STUDENT ASSOCIATION IN LUND (SASA)

– in collaboration with SASNET/Lund University

The Sky Below

Award-winning movie by Sarah Singh on the Partition of India

This courageous and moving film evokes painful memories and raises powerful issues that continue to trouble the South Asian subcontinent.

Lyrical shot on both sides of the Indo-Pak border, the film should be watched by those who care about the legacy of Partition as well as those trying to understand the complexities of fighting wars in those lands.

This will be first screening in the Nordic countries. There will be a Q&A with director afterwards.

Sara Singh was born in India into the Patiala royal family in Punjab. She is now spending her time primarily between New York and South Asia. Her work has been exhibited all over the world including the Victoria & Albert Museum in London; the Asian Civilizations Museum; the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace; and at universities such as Oxford and Stanford.

Friday 19 February 2016, 17.00-20.00

Venue: Edens hörsal, House Eden,
Paradisgatan 5 H, Lund

All are welcome!

More information:
www.sasnet.lu.se/sarahfilm

SASNET

Swedish South Asian Studies Network

LUND
UNIVERSITY